

II. Types of revelation

A. General revelation

1. Introduction

2. Forms of general revelation

a) The world of nature

(1) Key verses: Psalm 19:1-4; Romans 1:19-20

(2) Its universality (Psalm 19:4)

(3) Its contents

(4) Its limitation

(a) Nature contains enough truth to bring responsibility since people are without excuse to honor the Creator as God and thank Him (Romans 1:20-21).

(b) Nature contains enough truth to bring guilt if not acted upon properly.

(c) Nature does not contain enough truth to provide for salvation because it contains no truth about Christ and His atonement for sin.

b) The conscience of people

(1) Key verses: Romans 2:15; 2 Corinthians 4:2

(2) Its universality (2 Corinthians 4:2)

(3) Its definition

(4) Its action

(5) Its contents

(6) Its limitations
